Performance Bars

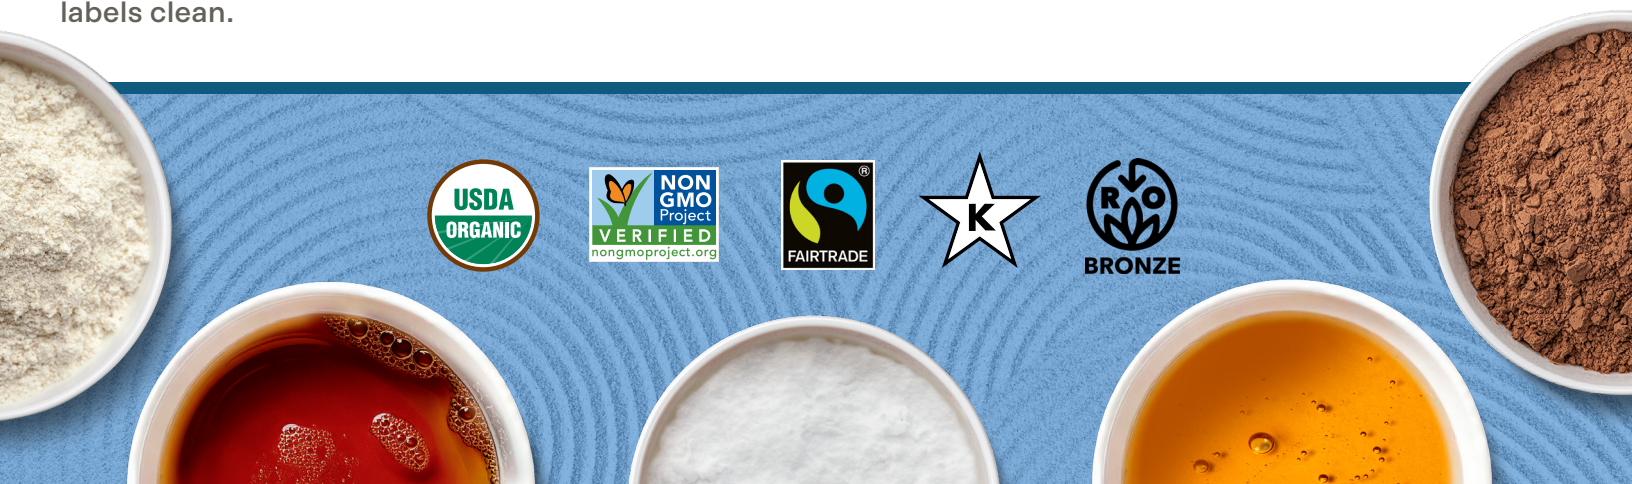

Organic syrups provide binding, chew, and balanced sweetness. Fiber and chocolate inclusions help boost nutrition and functionality in protein and energy bars, all while keeping labels clean.

Soft Nutrition

Syrups and starches shape chew and pliability, while clean sweeteners and fibers add balanced energy and digestive support for gummies, chews, and gels.

Ready-to-Mix Beverages

Organic carbohydrates, inulin, and cocoa deliver smooth mixability, clean energy, gut health benefits, and great taste in hydration, recovery, and performance powders.
